

Phone: (920) 969-2400 Fax: (920) 969-0180

Systems Engineer

Job Summary:

The engineer works in conjunction with the lead design engineer to prepare custom engineered fluid power solutions to our customers from quotation to final assembly. Also, they will support the sales staff and other divisions of Kundinger Inc. with technical support.

Principal Duties / Responsibilities:

A. Essential Functions

- a. A strong working knowledge of motion control products (hydraulic, pneumatic, electrical & mechanical)
- b. Creating fluid power schematics
- c. Support outside sales staff with system sales opportunities on the road or at Kundinger
- d. Preparing customer quotations and managing customer orders from quotation through build
- e. Solid analytical and problem solving skills

B. Basic Functions

- a. Excellent communication and work organization skills
- b. Fundamental knowledge of Microsoft Office products (Word, Excel, Outlook)
- c. Create and design mechanical / assembly layouts and fabrication drawings
- d. Experience with 2D (AutoCAD) and / or 3D-CAD software (Autodesk Inventor)

Education:

- A. Should have B.S. Degree in Engineering (Mechanical / Electrical)
- B. 5-7 years of experience as an application engineer is desired
- C. Fluid Power certified is a plus

Benefits:

Kundinger Inc. offers a competitive wage and benefits package that includes medical, life, disability insurance and Aflac coverage, as well as paid vacation and holidays. 401k and educational assistance are also available.